SPA BELLAGIO TOWER OPENS

LAS VEGAS, Nevada - February 1, 2005
- The new Spa Bellagio has opened. The Spa is part of the new Spa Tower with an additional 929 rooms, bringing the hotel's total to over 3,000. To handle the expansion, the 65,000 square foot Spa features a spectacular 6,000 square foot fitness center.

The Dumbbell Man (TDM) designed the room and supplied equipment for the strips most elaborate hotel fitness center. Michelle Wilkos, Spa Director stated, "TDM's experience, attention to detail and complete professionalism from the design stage through equipment installation has allowed us to create an exceptional spa fitness experience."

Guests can enjoy a complete strength training circuit, free weight and stretch areas, as well as a full line of cardiovascular equipment with individual TV monitors. Pilates, spinning, yoga and kick boxing are available in a separate group exercise room.

The Dumbbell Man is a leading provider of commercial exercise equipment in California and Nevada. Understanding the diverse needs of customers has led to successful business relationships for over 20 years. For more information, please visit the company's web site at www.dumbbellman.com.
