DUMBBELL MAN COMPLETES CLIPPER INSTALLATION

Los Angeles, CA. November 1, 2008

– The Los Angeles Clippers have opened their brand new $25 million dollar training facility. In addition to two full basketball courts, the two story structure contains a 2,600 square foot performance and strength training area featuring state of the art cardiovascular and weight training equipment, as well as a training room and an extensive hydrotherapy area.

The Dumbbell Man Fitness Equipment (TDM) was contracted to design, supply and service the exercise room for the team. Executive Assistant of Basketball Operations Alice Shing spearheaded the job for the organization; “This was a tremendous project to coordinate and bring in on time to start the season, The Dumbbell Man proved to be the best vendor to work with and we are completely satisfied with the end result.”

Strength and Conditioning Coach Rich Williams worked with TDM staff to hand pick the equipment used by the players. “Dumbell Man made the whole process easy and they are true professionals,” stated Williams.
