MGM GRAND SPA FITNESS CENTER REJUVENATED

March 6, 2008 – Las Vegas, Nevada, USA – The MGM Grand Spa has rejuvenated their fitness center, bringing a contemporary look to the facility's strength and cardiovascular components. The new equipment, coupled with a streamlined layout design, create a sleek, ultra inviting environment. The Dumbbell Man (TDM) was selected to lead the conversion from old to new, the results of which greatly enhance the already inspiring room overlooking the tranquil pool area. Alex Katz, Spa Manager, stated: "I really appreciate the attentiveness, response time and execution of the entire TDM staff; it certainly is a breath of fresh air in this industry."

Since the opening of MGM Grand in December of 1993, the property has earned multiple prestigious awards. Most recently it earned the 2007 AAA Four Diamond Award, and the Grand Spa was awarded 2007 Best Spa in a Hotel/Casino by Spa Finder Magazine. The 29,000-square-foot spa is decorated in warm, neutral colors with rock walls, wood accents and Asian-inspired themes. The Zen-inspired Grand Spa at the MGM Grand is tucked away from the commotion of the casino providing all guests a truly unique and personalized experience.

The Dumbbell Man is a leading provider of commercial exercise equipment in California and Nevada. Understanding the diverse needs of customers has led to successful business relationships for over 20 years. For more information, please visit the company's web site at www.dumbbellman.com.
